

New dates for postponed European Rowing Championships

20 APRIL 2020

The 2020 European Rowing Championships, European Rowing Under 23 Championships, and European Rowing Junior Championships will take place in September and October 2020.

Following the postponement of the 2020 European Rowing Junior Championships in Belgrade, Serbia and the 2020 European Rowing Championships in Poznan, Poland as a result of the COVID-19 global pandemic, the review of postponement options available for staging these events has continued. The ERB and the OCs are doing their best to provide competition opportunities for European rowers but keeping a close look on the overall health situation for the safety and health of the rowers.

After consultation with key stakeholders, including surveys of member federations, below are the new dates for the 2020 European Rowing events:
